MRS. J. L. WILCOX, Editor

DAYTONA BEACH

DAYTONA BEACH

Mrs. Willard L. Hibbard and son of Fort Pierce, arrived Saturday and have taken rooms for the remainder of the summer in the south Hibbard cottage on Live Oak avenue. Mr. Hibbard, who has been with the Rogers surveying party at Indian Springs, spent Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Herrick returned Sunday from several days visit at Pence Park, where she was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ellison.

Captain Oliver has returned from a trip to New York.

Dr. VanValzah and little daughter Miss Eunice, have returned from Philadelphia.

Miss Hutchinson, of DeLand, after a pleasant visit with Mrs. Sparber and daughter, Miss France, has returned to her home.

Bert Rogers came up from Palm Beach, where he has been in the cigar business for the past six months, and will spend a couple of weeks with his wife at Surf Crest.

Ted Heinberger, of Daytona, Mrs. Jester and three daughters, of Atlanta, and Miss Mary Allen, of Daytona, are pleasantly located at Ocean Villa hotel.

Dr. Voorhis and wife, of DeLand, and Mr. and Mrs. Loring Mace, of Lake Helen, spent Sunday at Ocean Villa.

Miss Fay Stewart went to Melbourne last week on a visit to relatives, remaining over the Fourth.

After a pleasant sojourn at the Seaside Inn, Miss Bertha Reeve has returned to her home in DeLand.

Mr. Godfrey Dreka, of DeLand, spent Monday on the beach.

Ben Willard was over from DeLand Monday, and played shortstop for the Daytona baseball team.

Mr. and Mrs. Talley and baby, of Lakeland, are expected here on a visit to Mrs. Talley's parents, Prof. J. M. Selden and wife. Mr. Talley will return to business as soon as he has his wife comfortably settled in a cottage.

Miss Mattie Yelvington is visiting Mrs. Dr. Howard at Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Curtis were host and hostess at a boat party on the Halifax Monday evening.

The guests included Mrs. Freeman and family, Miss Reed and Miss Horn.

Harry Horn returned Saturday from the State university at Bloomington, Ill., where he completed his law course, and is receiving a warm welcome from his many friends.

Ray Seldon returned yesterday from Chicago, where he has been on a combined pleasure and business trip.

The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering, and saved more lives than any other medicine in use. Invaluable for children and adults. Sold by all dealers.

SEABREEZE

The annual election of officers took place at the last meeting of the Ladies Sewing Club, June 30, result resulting as follows: President, Mrs. A. S. Randall; first vice-president, Mrs. Peter Rivenburg; second vice-president, Mrs. Evernden; secretary, Mrs. Wakefield; treasurer, Mrs. Wesley Herrick; associate treasurer, Mrs. Alice Godsmark. The circle met with Mrs. Blakeslee on Oakridge avenue. Refreshments were served at the social hour, and a profitable and pleasant afternoon enjoyed.

Rev. Abercrombie and wife and J. B. Garrison and family are occupying the Beekman Bide-a-Wee cottage on the plank walk during the month of July and possibly through the season.

C. A. Ballough has come down from Washington to take charge of his orange grove at Holly Hill for the next two months, and incidentally cast his ballot at the general city election.

Dr. A. T. Bigelow left for St. Paul, Minn., Saturday. He will close his office work North and return home the first of October.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Middleton had a pleasant family reunion Sunday, at which all their children were present with the exception of Cooper Middleton, who is with his family in Jacksonville. Those gathered at the dinner table were: Mr. and Mrs. Phil Stuart, Mrs. Theodore Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Middleton, Drew Harry and Violet Middleton. There were also eight grandchildren in the bunch.

The town council met in regular monthly session Monday night, but there was little doing saving the payment of regular monthly bills. Mrs. Rentz, Jr., arrived Saturday from Ocala, and has joined the family at Osceola Cottage.

Mrs. Scoville and Miss Kellogg, of Syracuse, N. Y., came over from DeLand and will spend the summer in one of the Kochesperger cottages.

The prospects for a good summer season for Seabreeze never looked brighter.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Ocala, will occupy the Kissimmee bungalow during July and August.

R. T. Butler, who left here last week, is now at White Springs, where he will remain a few weeks before starting for Central Arkansas.

Mr. Botts, of DeLand, has taken part of the Leland beach cottages, occupied by Mr. Smith and family, of Alachua.

The shack on Ocean Boulevard, which was used as a meat market, is being removed, very much to the gratification of resident property owners.

The family of Rev. J. H. Craig-hill arrived Monday from Gainesville, and have taken one of the Kochesperger beach cottages.

C. B. Poor left Sunday for Minnesota on a business trip. He was accompanied by Mr. Kerr and daughter, who have been at his home for some time.

OSTEEN

Mary Waddell went away Saturday, and after spending Sunday in Sanford with Miss Robbins, of the "Robbins Nest," she returned to her home in Jacksonville.

A delightful "spend the day party" was given at Mrs. A. T. Pattillo's Thursday in honor of visiting young ladies. Those entertained were the Misses Scriven, Miss Bertha Brooke, Mary Waddell and Addie Pattillo. Games were played, three of the girls at piano with singers, then a mid-day feast, followed by coconut fudge, between afternoon games.

Mr. G. A. Pattillo, of St. Louis, will spend a portion of his fortnight vacation with his parents here this month.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Crawford and three children, from Laredo, Texas, are visiting his sister, Mrs. J. E. Pattillo. They intend to locate somewhere in Florida very soon.

Mr. R. E. Goodman drove out from DeLand Monday, the fifth, and spent the day with friends, far from celebration noises, the nearest being the cannons across the river in Sanford.

Several of our young people went to nearby towns to hear the bands and "see the fun" on the fifth. Those who staid at home found no time to feel lonely in the least.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Carpenter are settled in their cottage on the lake, having moved from the Indian river country during mosquito season. Here no screens or nets are needed, but in the vicinity of Titusville, with both protections, persons can hardly sleep nights nor rest in the day.

We regret to hear that Mr. William Lowe has two cases of sickness in his family. They contracted bilious fever, being in a recent shower and hot sunshine. We sincerely trust they will soon be well.

Carriages full of persons interested in real estate in Osteen and surrounding lands pass through frequently now. Some have made definite plans to invest here.

"I don't keer for the dress suit," declared the statesman.

"Afraid your constituents would not like it."

"No, it ain't that. But dress suits ain't got no bussums to thrust your right hand into."—Kansas City Journal.

Rheumatic Pains

"My mother is a great sufferer from rheumatism, and Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills is the only remedy that relieves her."

MRS. G. DAVENPORT,
Roycefield, N. J.

The pains of rheumatism are almost invariably relieved with Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They also overcome that nervous irritation which prevents sleep because they soothe the nerves. To chronic sufferers they are invaluable. When taken as directed, they relieve the distress and save the weakening influence of pain, which so frequently prostrates. Many sufferers use them whenever occasion requires with the greatest satisfaction, why not you? They do not derange the stomach nor create a habit. Why not try them? Get a package from your druggist. Take it according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.
